Dear Parents,

Staff changes from September 2024

I am writing to let you know of some changes to staffing at school that will take effect from September 2024.

At the end of term Miss Harris, our Foundation Stage teacher and Miss Underdown, who covers classes in Key Stage 2, will both be retiring from teaching. Mrs Inglis, a member of our support staff, will also be retiring at the end of term. I would like to thank all three for their immense contribution whilst they have been working at Loudwater School.

Miss Harris has undertaken a number of roles during the time she has worked at the school, originally joining us in 2004. She has worked mainly in Foundation Stage and Key Stage 1, taking on the class teacher role in Foundation Stage in 2016. She has been the subject leader for Art and Design and has curated our bi-annual Art Exhibition.

Miss Underdown has been working with us since 2018. In addition to her teaching role, she has been the subject leader for Religious Education; an area in which she has transformed teaching and learning.

Mrs Inglis has been associated with the school for over 32 years since her own children attended Loudwater School. After helping on a voluntary basis, she became a member of support staff and has worked with many children over the years.

Over the next few weeks, we will be advertising for these roles. Mr Spratt, our new Headteacher, will be involved in making the decisions about staffing for next year and as soon as we are able to confirm arrangements, we will let you know.

Kind regards,

Clare Cunningham

Headteacher
