

When I read the title of this book I had to read it to find out all about the story, as taking my dog to the beach is one of my favourite things to do on holiday!

This story is about a boy called Danny, who doesn't want to take his dog, Scruff, for a walk. Danny is bored at home and wants to play with his brother Mick, who has gone out to play with his friends.

So Danny sets off along the beach with Scruff and Scruff is very excited by beach – he thinks it is the best place in the world. Soon, Danny starts to notice all the different things there is to explore at the beach. After a while, Danny runs into drama and it is Scruff to the rescue. I will leave you to read the story to find out what happens at the end!

This is a beautifully illustrated book with lots to explore in the pictures by the author Anthony Browne. Anthony Browne has written many other picture books such as Voices in the Park and The Tunnel, so he is definitely one to look out for.

I would recommend this book to younger children who would like to share a story with an adult or anyone who loves a good picture book.

Book review by Mr Hasyn