The owl who was afraid of the dark

The sun was shining brightly and Plop was very excited. His mummy was angry because Plop had woken her up so she said go and find out about the dark right now.

Slowly Plop waddled to the end of the landing branch. Plop plopped and fell way just like a roller coaster and landed with a huge thud. When Plop landed he met a horse and he thought Plop was a glowing apple.

The horse was nibbling a apple tree. Plop asked the horse what do you know about the dark? The horse said dark is wonderful because you can see sparkly stars!

After Plop flew up to the landing
branch because he was ~~so~~ very excited.
Mummy said so what did you learn about the dark? It is wonderful and ~~new~~ mummy said and what do you think Plop? I still still do not like the dark at all.
