

This fantastic book is a collection of poems written by famous Caribbean poets. There is a variety of poems ranging from poems about skipping rope and steel band, to poems about tropical fruits. The books also offers the chance for readers to read some of the poems in English or Patwa (an accent from the Caribbean).

This book provides some information about poets and their early life. It also tells the reader about their interests and their inspiration for poetry. This amazing picture book will keep you captivated and entertained.

Recommended by Mr Williams