

Magic and Mayhem by Enid Blyton

I have chosen this book because when I was little, Enid Blyton was my favourite author. In fact, it was probably because she was the main children's author. The other reason why I have chosen this book is that sometimes reading a whole book from start to finish can be quite daunting. This book comprises of 9 short stories which means that you can dip in and out of it whenever you want or when you have a spare five or ten minutes.

This book is an entertaining collection of magical stories. If you enjoy reading about fantastical spells, magic sweet shops, sulky wizards and goblins who want to be king, then this is the book for you. It is great for reading on your own or being read aloud by an adult and I would recommend it for KS1 and lower KS2.
